Wilson Stock Again Soars High When Progressives Get Control

Convention Overturned Ruling of Credentials Committee in South Dakota Case, Taking Votes of That State From Clark Column and Giving Them to Wilson.

Notable Triumph Achieved by Bryan, His Resolution Banning Influence of "Big Business" Going Through Convention by More Than a Two-Thirds Vote.

Nominating Speeches Made Late Thursday Night and Ballotting Began at Noon Session Yesterday.

Baltimore, June 28.—Yesterday was a day of victories for Wm. J. Bryan and the Wilson forces in the democratic national convention. Mr. Bryan's resolution putting a ban on any man for the presidential nomination who is allied with J. P. Morgan, Thos. F. Ryan or August Belmont, went through overwhelmingly. In the morning session the Bryan-Wilson progressives won a victory when the delegates overturned the report of the credentials committee

LOOKS LIKE CLARK

Clark is leading with enough votes to deadlock the convention if he can hold 363 of them together. No other candidate has more than one third of the votes. New York will vote for Clark after Harmon. Ollie James expresses confidence that Clark will win.

offered by W. J. Bryan denying seats in the convention to Ryan and Belmont, and criticising all those who in the convention are under obligations to Morgan, Ryan or Belmont. The resolution raised a storm and Mr. Bryan withdrew all but that part which criticised beneficiaries of the men named. Senator-elect Ollie M. James took his seat as permanent chairman of the convention yesterday and made a speech which was received with great enthusiasm.

Nominating speeches were made all night and one ballot was taken which stood:
Clark.....4403
Wilson.....324
Harmon.....148
Underwood.....1173
Marshall.....31
Baldwin.....22
Sulzer.....2
Bryan.....1

Adjournment was then made to 4 p. m. The nominations will be made at the evening session.

Bryan Hands Off

In an interview last night Mr. Bryan said he regarded Clark as a progressive and would vote for him if nominated, and that he had refused to express a preference as between Wilson and Clark.

The Platform

The platform will not be reported until after the ticket is made up.

WOODSON FIGHTS HARD, BUT LOSES

Defeated For Re-election As Secretary of National Committee.

Baltimore, Md., June 28.—Urey Woodson, of Kentucky, secretary of the national committee, was defeated for re-election. E. E. Brattan, a Raleigh, N. C., newspaper man, was named to succeed him. The vote was 24 to 18. The defeat of Mr. Woodson was unexpected, although of late he had been regarded as much too friendly with the reactionary leaders. While on friendly terms with Bryan this fact was not regarded sufficient warrant that he would line up "right" in the eyes of the progressives who appear now to have the situation well in their hands. Woodson was defeated for re-election as national committee-man by J. C. C. Mayo, but Norman Mack, Tom Taggart, Roger Sullivan and other of Woodson's friends were anxious to retain him as secretary. His defeat today at the hands of a practically unknown newspaper man came as a surprise.

Bitten By Dog.

I. P. Duke was bitten on the right fore-arm by a dog belonging to a colored man on Fourth street Thursday. Mr. Duke was in the yard making an estimate on some carpenter's work when the animal attacked him. A large vein was cut and Mr. Duke lost considerable blood before the flow could be stopped.

CITY CASE

Involving Health Officer's Salary For 1910 Decided In Circuit Court.

In the suit of Dr. J. P. Keith vs. Dr. J. E. Stone, growing out of their rival claims to be the City Health Officer during ten months of 1910, Judge Hanbery decided in favor of Dr. Keith. The amount involved was $258 and interest. Dr. Keith was elected Health Officer in 1909 and Dr. Stone was elected in February 1910, the council having changed the three year term in 1907 to expire in 1910. Dr. Keith claimed that his unexpired term under the statutes was until 1911, and the court sustains this claim and judgment is given against Dr. Stone for the salary paid him until that date.

DON'T FORGET

Mr. Roudebush Will Have Many Things to Interest Farmers

Any farmer that fails to be here Monday and hear the two lectures by Lowell Roudebush will have cause for regret. The first lecture will be at 10 o'clock in the morning, the afternoon lecture at 1 o'clock. The Business Men's Association is to be commended for the steps taken in securing these free lectures through John W. Newman, State Commissioner of Agriculture.

END OF SESSIONS

Of Epworth League of Louisville Conference Last Night.

The meeting of the Epworth Leagues, which was held here commencing Tuesday night, closed last night. The attendance was very large and the interest was quite manifest, the delegates wearing badges bearing the words, "Greater Louisville District." According to the program the meeting was to wind up last night with an address by Rev. F. S. Parker, of Nashville. Dr. Parker's theme was "Evangelism and Extension." After the address a testimony service was held. There were over a hundred or more young ladies and men in attendance who were guests of the members of the Methodist church.

Want Pensions.

Twenty-four claims for pensions under the new Confederate pension law have been approved by the County Court and forwarded to Capt. W. J. Stone, pension commissioner, at Frankfort. These will be passed upon finally by the state board, and payment will begin in August on those finally approved. Fourteen other claims filed at the last County Court will be acted upon by Judge Dabney on the second Monday in July.—Cadiz Record.

Grief For His Son.

Danville, Ky., June 25.—Hartwell Ethrington, farmer of Washington county, committed suicide with a shotgun. He was the father of Carl Ethrington, the "Dry" detective who was lynched by a mob at New Ark, O., a few years ago, and grief over this caused his suicide.

ECHOES FROM CHAUTAUQUA

Kryl's Band Drew The Record Crowd of the Entire Week.

WHAT ABOUT NEXT YEAR.

23 Business Men Organized to Secure Amusement Next Summer.

The Chautauqua has come and gone. It was something new to our people and the consensus of opinion is that it was something we should have next year. Kryl's band drew the record crowd of the week on Wednesday night, with Reno a close second Thursday night.

NEXT YEAR.

As Hopkinsville is too large a place not to have an annual gathering of the people from all sections for a week in each year, and as the effort to revive the old time county fair was a failure, what can we have without it be the Chautauqua? It looks like Chautauqua or nothing, and we must have something.

A NEW MOVEMENT.

Seeing the need of the city and county and knowing the necessity of immediate action, 23 or more of our progressive citizens have formed an organization to secure a week's entertainment next year. Should their plans mature, and we doubt not they will, the people of the city and county can rest assured that something will be doing a year hence. Of course the whole thing rests upon one thing, will the people generally do their part towards subscribing for the necessary funds? We doubt not they will, in fact it already looks like a go.

THE PRIME MOVERS.

There are dominant characters in every community and city. They arise to the need of occasion as naturally as sparks fly upward. They expect them to step into a breach or meet a crisis while they look on and then themselves fall into the line of duty and the day is won. Public confidence begets public success. Everybody has the supremest confidence in the gentlemen named below and others associated with them: Thos. W. Long, W. T. Tandy, R. E. (Emmett) Cooper, L. L. Elgin, Geo. Gary, Dr. T. W. Blakey, Lucian Davis, S. U. Wooldridge, Geo. D. Dalton, W. R. Hancock, C. R. Clark, W. A. Wilgus, president of the new association, Capt. A. G. Chapman, the secretary, and about a dozen others of this kind.

Can you for a moment doubt that Hopkinsville will hereafter be barren during the summer of something to educate and amuse the public?

HON. A. E. WILLSON

Former Governor Makes a Brief Visit to the City.

Former Governor A. E. Willson was in the city yesterday morning for a few hours in connection with the affairs of an insurance company of which he is president. He met a number of leading business men and had a talk with them at the office of the Business Men's Association.
